CHÂTEAU
Phélan Ségur

Located in the village of Saint-Estèphe, Château Phélan Ségur has proudly overlooked the Gironde estuary since the early 19th century. Founded by Irishman Bernard Phelan, the estate was developed by his son, Frank, and renamed Phélan Ségur in the early 20th century.

Consisting of seventy hectares of vines divided into four distinct parts, the great diversity of the terroir accounts for Château Phélan Ségur's complexity. The cellar and vat room are integrated into the Château in a highly unusual architectural ensemble. The wines are aged with the greatest of care and Château Phélan Ségur is famous for its elegance, finesse, and balance.

Philippe Van de Vyvere is the owner since January 2018. Initiated by his grandfather at an early age, this great connoisseur of Bordeaux was really taken with the Château. He intends to apply his entrepreneurial values in pursuit of aesthetic and technical excellence while respecting environmental balances.
